General Business Terms (AGB) in effect from 20.04.19

These current general business terms are part of the contract that are given to us from the organizer who has given assignment for seminars events to the Seminarhaus Shanti - Yoga Vidya e.V.. Contrary conditions are not valid. The organizer submits to these conditions as well.

1. Legal force

To ensure this online offer for business and in general, the offered goods and services from Yoga Vidya, we have to meet the legal requirements of several clauses (Conditions of use - AGB).

These clauses and the complete termination of legal relationships between you and Yoga Vidya are exclusively subject to regulations of German law. If single regulations are invalid or will be, the legal force of all other regulations stays unaffected. In place of the invalid regulation use a valid regulation that comes closest to the meaning of the invalid regulation as far as it is possible.

Yoga Vidya reserves the right to change these regulations at all times. A particularly indication of a change does not take place. The regulations are to be proved of changes independently and periodically.

2. Prices

All offered prices include all taxes and dues. They are valid until revocation. If the legal tax changes after the conclusion of a contract the prices are changed accordingly.

Guest group prices and conditions apply for groups of 5 or more. If there are less than 5 participants, the individual guest pricing should be followed. The seminar room is free for groups of 5 or more. Seminar rooms are chosen appropriately based on the size of the group.

3. Special prices

- Arriving one day earlier than the seminar begins: use the same price as our Yoga Vidya individual guest price (only advisable for people that have attended a Yoga Vidya seminar here already). There is no breakfast included in that price.
- Departure one day after the seminar ends includes yoga class, brunch 11:00 (no breakfast): same price as our Yoga Vidya individual guest price.
- Children discount: From 3 to 11 years - 50 %; From 12 to 15 years - 30 % discount on the total price.
- From 15, 35 and 100 participants there lodges each 1 seminar facilitator for free.
- The rooms have to be cleared at the latest by 12:30. If the departure day coincides with the Yoga Vidya congress, the rooms have to be cleared at the latest by 09:00. If the rooms are not cleared at that time and the keys are not turned in to reception, reception can assess an extra charge.

4. Room hire

Agreed terms for room hire are exclusively valid for the ordered premises, as well as for the ordered furnishings.

5. Stay

We are a vegetarian, alcohol free and smoke free house. During the seminar please refrain from meat, fish, eggs, alcohol and tobacco, and if possible attend all of our open programs. The cooking and the consumption of meat, fish, eggs, alcohol, and tobacco is not allowed in our buildings. Only outside our grounds is smoking possible. We are not a hotel, but a spiritual seminar house and we offer to our groups the unique possibility to enhance your stay with a free yoga class including a deep relaxation. If you extend your stay for one or several days as an individual guest, you can participate in all yoga classes and a lecture about general yoga subjects. The open class program, as well as daily meditation and mantra singing is free for all guests.

6. Bringing your own food and beverages

To bring food and beverages to the events and seminars you need prior approval through the seminar house. The seminar house can prorated the fee for that.

7. Pets

- The guests are obligated to give prior notice if they want to bring one or more pets. We have a limited amount of rooms for guests with dogs available. We are asking you for early notification!
- Pets are not allowed in the dining areas and in the seminar rooms.
- Dogs are to walk on a leash in between the seminar houses!
- The dog owner is liable for all risks and damages related to his pet.

8. Technician work

If there is technician work needed to be done from outside firms, our Seminar house will adjust the organizer's account accordingly.

9. Music

If the organizer is planning musical performances, he should give the details to the Seminar house in advance. There maybe necessary payments of GEMA-fees and amusement tax, so this has to be prepared for by the organizer. The organizer is obligated to give the confirmed forms to us at the latest one week before the seminar starts.

Musical programs have to stop by 22:00 to keep our night-time silence for our guests.

10. Decorations

- The organizer is obligated to inform the Seminar house of the intended use of decorations, and to receive approval for that from the seminar house. The installation has to be done by expert staff and all regulations about fire codes given by the police should be adhered to. The seminar rooms may not be damaged. Any damages incurred by installation or removal of decorations will be charged to the organizer.
- After the seminar ends all items are to be removed immediately. If the organizer refrains from doing so, the seminar house may remove and store these things at the organizer's expense. If the items stay in the seminar rooms, the seminar house will charge to have the items removed. The organizer will have to prove a lower damage cost, the Seminar house will have to prove a higher damage cost.

11. Lost and found items

Lost and found items will only be forwarded by request. They will be stored for 3 month in the seminar house. After expiration of this time the items, that have an apparent value, are hand over to the local lost and found office. Messages, letters and packages for guests are treated with maximum care. Storage and forwarding will be done only with reimbursement of expenses and at the expressed request of the customer. Liability of the seminar house for loss, delay and damage is in this respect excluded.

12. Liability

- The organizer is liable for all damages, brought about by his guests, staff or commissioned persons. As the circumstances require, the seminar house will demand from the organizer to cover a suitable insurance.
- Brought sale items and other items, also personal items, are left in the seminar rooms and the seminar house at the organizer's own risk. The seminar house will not assume liability for loss, decay and damage, also not for pecuniary damage, only in the case of an act of gross negligence or purpose of the seminar house. Thereof excepted are damages out of injury of life, of body or health. The liability of the seminar house is excluded, if the brought items are left in the closed rooms.
- It is the responsibility of the organizer to insure the brought items are appropriate.

13. Cancellation by the seminar house

The seminar house is justified to end the contractual relationship at any time and without giving any reason, if

- The organizer is threatening our trouble-free business operations
- The reputation as well as the security of the house is endangered
- Agreed down payment has not reached the seminar house in time
- Circumstances beyond our control.

The organizer is in such case not eligible to assert or demand payment of damages.

14. For the general use of the online proposal

For parts of the online proposal there are special conditions and terms of use and/or participation. They are each duly denoted and indicated by Yoga Vidya and they are binding for the particular use of these premises.

A legal claim for action and usage of the internet proposal of Yoga Vidya does not exist.

15. Content of the online proposal

Yoga Vidya does not assume any responsibility for the actuality, correctness, completeness or quality of the provided information. Liability against Yoga Vidya e.V., which relates to or ideally to any kind of damages, that are brought about by using or not using the offered information respectively, or by using them incorrectly or incompletely, are generally excluded, as long as there is no act of gross negligence or purpose of Yoga Vidya e.V. All offers are not obligated and non-binding. Without prior notice Yoga Vidya information is subject to change, can add and delete parts of the website or of the offers without special announcement, or to cease the publication temporarily or finally.

16. References and links

Ordinary References (HTML-Links) on undersides and subdirectories (DeepLinks) and the integration of Yoga Vidya-Websites in parts (e.g. through Frames) on other websites are only permitted with the approval of Yoga Vidya. The establishment of HTML-links to our offers is allowed and requested, whereby Yoga Vidya reserves the right without stating a reason to demand a removal of the HTML-links within a reasonable time period.

Yoga Vidya is as content provider responsible for their own content, that they keep available for use, according to the general legislation. Their own content is distinguished from cross references ("links") to content of other providers. For these foreign contents Yoga Vidya e.V. is only then responsible, if they have positive knowledge and it is technically possible and reasonable to prevent their use (that is to say also for any illegal respectively culpable content) (§5 section 2 TDG).

By „links“ is meant they are a matter of „living“ (dynamic) references. Yoga Vidya e.V. is not able to always prove foreign contents if they possibly cause a civil or a criminal liability. The provider of the content is according to TDG not obligated to always prove the contents to which he in his offers refer to, which could justify a new Liability.

Only if he notes or get a reference from others, that a concrete offer to which he provides a link that causes a civil or a criminal liability, the link of this offer will be nullified as far as it is technically possible and reasonable.

The technically possible and reasonable is not influenced by the fact that even after ending the access from the Yoga Vidya homepage there is an access to the illegal and culpable offer that can be reached through other servers.

17. Copyright law

Yoga Vidya strives to consider all copyrights in all publications of used pictures, graphics, audio-documents, video sequences and texts and draws on reserves of these created pictures, graphics, audio-documents, video sequences and texts, or to license free graphics, audio-documents, video sequences and texts.

In addition to the internet-offer named, and as the case may be through third persons, protected trademarks and brand names include underlying unrestricted regulations for the given valid trademark and the right of ownership of the respectively registered owner. Only the mere naming of the trademark does not mean that it is not protected through a third party! All rights are reserved. Information and all other contents (texts, graphics, etc.) may not be used, not even in excerpts, in any form without prior approval from Yoga Vidya.

18. Data Protection

Yoga Vidya stores and uses information about the interaction of users of our website for statistical reason. For any internet offer that includes the possibility to enter personal and commercial data (email address, names, addresses), the exposure of this data takes place only by explicit voluntary consent of the user. The utilization and payment of all offered services is – insofar as it is technically possible and reasonable – also allowed without information of such data respectively under information of anonymous data or of a pseudonym.

19. Bot and commercials (spam)

The using of this offer with automated systems (robots, software, bot), or the exploitation of offered systems (forum, blog, mail, etc.) for the purpose of advertisement (spam), is explicitly prohibited. It will lead to automatically exclusion of further deliverables from Yoga Vidya (e.g. blog, forum, etc.). The usage of the published contact details of the online offers like mail addresses, phone and fax numbers together with email-addresses through third persons for transmission or not expressly requested information is not allowed. Legal measures are expressly reserved against the consignor of the so-called spam-mails offending against this prohibition.

Disregarding these conditions can lead to exclusion from all online offers and also be disabled for the future! Moreover there is no right for refund/compensation.
